THE South-Carolina GAZETTE.

July 2d, 1753. [NUMB. 994.]

LONDON, March 5.

WE hear, that a ſum will be granted by parliament to be diſtributed among ſuch chaplains as ſerved in his majeſty's navy during the late war, and are not otherwiſe provided for. Moſt of theſe gentlemen were left deſtitute of any ſupport, when their ſhips were paid off, and they are the only officers in his majeſty's ſervice for whom no proviſion is made, when diſcharged; and, when employed, they are of no more expence to the nation than an ordinary ſailor, the reſt of their pay ariſing from deductions out of the men's pay. Soon after the concluſion of the peace, having preſented a petition to his majeſty, repreſenting their diſtreſſed circumſtances, and humbly imploring to be partakers of the ſame advantages that their brethren the chaplains of the army and marines were; his majeſty referred their petition to the lords of the treaſury; but their lordſhips finding their ſervice more properly cognizable by the lords of the admiralty, the petitioners applied on their lordſhips, who, we hear, have been pleaſed to recommend their caſe, as objects deſerving relief. After the peace of Utrecht the parliament granted queen Anne 3000 l. to be diſtributed amoag the chaplains of the navy that were unprovided for.

The magiſtrates and inhabitants of Edinburgh being deſirous to improve that city, by widening the ſtreets and avenues, and erecting an Exchange and other public buildings, have applied to parliament for leave to purchaſe lands and houſes, and ſuch other powers as are neceſſary for executing their deſign.

March 8. We hear that the author of the new tragedy, called The Brothers, deſigns the profits that ſhall accrue from it to be given to the ſociety for propagating the goſpel in foreign parts.

AMERICA.

Boſton, in New-England, May 28. By a Veſſel from Louiſbourg, we have an Account, that a Veſſel from Providence in Connecticut, bound for Louiſbourg, was lately caſt away on the Cape Sable Shore, but the Men ſaved themſelves, and were afterwards taken up by Capt. Pennetres, in a Schooner belonging to Annapolis-Royal, who put into St. Peter's on Cape-Breton: But that while Pennetres lay there, a Number of Indians boarded his Veſſel, killed him and all the People he had on board (except a French Pilot) and carried the Scalps, 12 in Number, in Triumph to Louiſbourg.

Newbern, in North-Carolina, June 2. Yeſterday arrived in this Town, an Expreſs from Virginia, to his Honour the Preſident of this Province; who brings an Account, that the French Indians have croſſed the River Miſſiſippi, and advanced as far as the back Engliſh Settlements, robbed and murdered ſome of the Engliſh Indian trading Companies, and committed other Outrages againſt the Inhabitants of Pennſylvania, Virginia, &c.

CHARLES-TOWN, July 2.

On Thurſday the 22d of June (being alſo the Day of His Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, when He entered into the 27th Year of His Reign) the CORNER STONE of our STATE HOUSE, was laid, by His Excellency the Governor, and a Sum of Money thereon: After him, the ſeveral Members of His Majeſty's Council and the Aſſembly, the Commiſſioners, and other Gentlemen who attended the Governor, laid each a Brick in the proper Manner; and then they all proceeded to Mr. Gerard's, where, after Dinner, Toaſts ſuitable to the Day and Occaſion were drank.

Yeſterday an unhappy Accident befell the Schooner Elizabeth, belonging to Capt McGillivray of this Port; the Wind being Eaſterly and ſtormy, fill'd the Harbour in the Afternoon with a prodigious Sea, and the Schooner's Lumber-Port being left open, the Water entered there and ſunk her at the Wharf, whereby about 70 Barrels of Rice and other Goods on board have been damaged, but the Veſſel was freed and got up again in the Night.

The Headmen of the Lower Cherokee's have been ſome Time in Town, and as that part of the Nation ſuffered moſt by the War with the Creek's, they have expreſſed the greateſt Deſire for Peace; the other Chiefs are ſince arrived, and all Diſputes between them and the Creek's are likely to be finally ſettled in a few Days.
